OUR BOYS

Want Suits for vacation—Suits of neat design and pattern, but of good, solid,
all-wool material, to resist
the wear and tear of happy and careless playfellow. Nothing better than the sturdy Cheviot;
nothing comes in prettier designs;
wears like hard wood; comes in all the fashionable colorings—in the stripes, plaids, inns, plaids, and in the solid colors, from the light color through the medium, that won't show dirt,
and in the darker shades,
made lined, half-lined, skeleton.

50 lines to show at $5.00.
50 lines to show at $6.00.
50 lines to show at $6.50.

Finer lines for Dress
Suits for boys up to $20.00.

Wanamaker & Brown,
210 and 212 N. Broadway.

Don't forget our Kilt
Suits; 1,000 to show you.
Extra Skirts for kilts also.
Original and unsurpassed
Wanamaker combinations.

The Safest Retreat In Home, Sweet Home.

What it quickens my footsteps
When I step into your home,
What it stirs up my heart-beat,
Only the dear thought of home.
There is no place where I can find
Pure jewels, scattering light
Diamond leaves, hollow and worthless,
Only the home dear to night.

It is a gift to me a greater
Gem than I could ever dream,
Holding my bairns by the fingers
With a smile that makes me tremble,
She who is never too weary,
Never too busy to stop.

This is the home I always worry
Tired to death of the shop.

Go, give your wife such presents,
Put up a home all her own;
This is the home she loves so well,
This is her empire and throne;

It will not be hard though you think it
What she wants is a home,

Home that is happy and cheerful,
What man is happy who loves?

And what man indeed, never thinks you cannot afford to keep house. You can save enough in six months to buy a home, and have a home, and have things, and there are yours. There is no blis to compare to it. Ask THE ONLY NICHOLSONS.

P. S.—Mac has started every happy home to

SATURDAY, JUNE 2, 1888.

The indications for twenty-four hours, commencing at 3 p. m. to-day, for Missouri are: Light to fresh northerly winds, becoming variable; stationary, followed by rising temperature; fair weather.

The Thurman boom has a solid look.

The latest Chicago murder should be charged to the private detective.

The programme of the convention will be found pretty completely outlined in this issue.

In the Bell Telephone Co. is inclined to try a game of bluff on St. Louis, let it try.

A CANDIDATE based on the support of New York and California has a broad and national aspect.

PERSONS who took stock in Mr. GOULD's management of the Wabash and the M. & T. are more afraid that they will never recover than that he will not.

ONE of the reasons why McDONALD of Indiana has not been mentioned for the Vice-Presidency is because he has been the counsel for the Bell Telephone Co. in its resistance to the laws of Indiana.

THOSE who charge Americans with a lack of sentiment will have hard work to explain the popular tributes which have made THURMAN a vice-presidential possibility and SHERIDAN a General in a day.

The report that Mr. GOULD was dangerously ill in his car when he reached Kansas City from Omaha Friday is not confirmed. But we hope it will deter the Missouri delegation from springing his name on the Democratic Convention next week.

A GREAT many of Mr. BLAINE's admirers insist that his letters are so worded as to leave him free to accept a spontaneous and unanimous nomination. They seem to admire him because they regard him as the most cunning, adroit, slippery and unscrupulous man in American politics.

MR. BLAINE's withdrawal has been so timed as to insure a Blaine convention without BLAINE. It will meet under the absolute control of his managers, and, if they hold together, any man it nominates will be pledged to make BLAINE the boss of his administration and to give them control of the patronage.

ALTHOUGH Chicago has lost her packing trade her social prestige is kept up. It is only in Chicago that ladies interrupt the monotony of divorce proceedings by filling the lawyers up with bullets, and it is only in Chicago that a society gentleman expresses his disapproval of the conduct of another gentleman by dexterously amputating his ear with a pen-knife.

The Reformed Presbyterian Synod of the United States has resolved to maintain the discipline requiring from members "a practical dissent from the Government of the United States as at present constituted," and the Constitution is denounced as "a virtual compact or agreement to administer the Government without reference to Christ or the Christian religion." The Mormons entertain a very similar objection to the Constitution, and for their right to do so are indebted to the very peculiarity which most offends them in the Constitution. An organic law made to go the precise length of any religious faith would not permit any "practical dissent" from the established faith.

THE TARIFF IN ELECTIONS.

While claiming California for the Democrats this year, Senator HEARST admits that he cannot tell how the tariff issue will affect the vote of his State, because no former election there has turned on that question. In fact, no man can tell how it will affect the vote of any State in which it has never been the leading issue between parties. But as far as elections have gone in States where the tariff issue has been the most prominent, the results have certainly not been of a kind to scare tariff reformers.

The emphasis with which the Pennsylvania Democrats have repudiated Mr. RANDALL's tariff position is duplicated in the opposition of a large Republican element to the attitude of the Republican members of the Ways and Means Committee, and the division of the Republicans on the tariff question seems to be more formidable and irreconcilable than on the Democratic side.

The Chicago Tribune warns its fellow Republicans that their party "has never had a presidential battle on a platform of high protection," and that its first reverse was when it accepted the square issue presented by TILDEN's platform of "a tariff for revenue only," in 1876. On this platform he swept New York, Connecticut, New Jersey and Indiana, and carried the country by a majority of 250,000 votes, coming within 7,000 votes of taking Ohio from HAYES and whittling down the Republican majority in Illinois from 50,000 to 19,000.

The same stalwart Republican paper ascribes the success of the Republican party four years later to the nomination of Gen. GARFIELD, "a pronounced tariff-reform man," who took from HANCOCK three of the Northern States TILDEN had carried. Of BLAINE's defeat the Tribune, which ardently advocated both his nomination and election, says:

In 1884 the Republican platform declared for a high protective tariff, and the result was an incongruous, and ridiculous, reversal—reversing by reducing tariff taxation. But Mr. BLAINE, unfortunately, was not satisfied with the reformatory and retrogressive tariff plank in the Republican platform made by the National Convention of the party, but sought to make another, and in his speeches advocated ultra-tariffism, and the result was that tens of thousands of Republicans repudiated the offensive issue thrust upon them and bolted the party ticket, inflicting upon the Republican party a disastrous defeat. Many whose party feasted kept them in line and who labored zealously for BLAINE's success, virtually lost hope after he began to force and emphasize the high-tariff issue outside of the platform.

That "a trust-monopoly tariff campaign on the part of the Republicans would be worse this year than in 1876 or in 1884" is a warning which the Chicago Tribune persistently presses upon its party, and all the election returns so far plainly sustain it. Those who claim that RANDALL's speeches and RANDALL's interpretation of the platform saved New York for CLEVELAND in 1884 seem to forget the larger majority by which TILDEN carried the State on a radical low-tariff platform and the increased majority by which HILL carried the same State since 1884, without RANDALL's assistance, and on a platform demanding a sweeping reduction of tariff duties.

FOLLOWING the example of Ohio and Missouri the State of Maine will have its delegation personally conducted by an able and popular railroad manager. Mr. ARTHUR SEWELL, the President of the Maine Central Railroad, will come as a delegate from the Second District, while the Vice-President and General Manager of the same road will appear as a delegate-at-large. It might not be impossible to organize a railroad freight pool or even a trust out of the abundant material in the convention and it would not be seriously interfered with by the presence of Interstate Commerce Commissioners MORISON.

THE position occupied by the Post-Dispatch among the newspapers of the country was again illustrated yesterday by its treatment of the two leading topics of the day, the Thurman boom and the Rawson shooting. The Post-Dispatch was the first newspaper in the country to print an interview with THURMAN himself defining his situation, and as for the Rawson shooting in Chicago our column specially covered it with a completeness that left not a line of news to be added by this morning's papers.

THE advertisement of the Wabash Railway that it will on Sunday commence running vestibuled trains between St. Louis and Chicago puts St. Louis in her right place in the front rank among rail-road cities in this latest addition to the comfort, safety and luxury of travel. Thanks, Wabash.

THE athletic craze has not reached the members of our St. Louis House of Delegates. They will never be found walking home after their meetings as long as a mere resolution sends a sergeant-at-arms out to hire carriages "to convey the members and officers of this House to their respective homes."

BRITISH SCHEMING.

Mexicans Exposed Over the Foreign Encroachment in Yucatan.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 2.—Much attention is being given by the Mexican press to reports that are coming from the State of Yucatan with regard to the encroachments of the English on Mexican territory in that portion of the Republic. It is asserted that notes have been recently interchanged on this subject between the Mexican Government and the British Legation at this capital. The points made in these notes are that the English are not content with occupying a portion of the Mexican territory to which they have no legal or historic right, have recently limited to that territory; second, that they have persistently supplied the wild unabated Indians of the country with arms and ammunition for the war against the Mexican Government. The portion of the territory alluded to is that of the State of Yucatan. This is the Noticiero, an independent Liberal organ, in its issue yesterday, calls on the Government to protect the integrity of the National Territory and to prohibit the entry of the English and prophesies that unless Mexico takes timely action, the rich and flourishing State of Yucatan will be absorbed by Great Britain.

PILGRIMS FOR LIBERIA.

New York Crowded With Emigrants Going to the Colored Republic.

By Telegraph to the Post-Dispatch.

New York, June 2.—The colored boarding-houses in this city during the past four or five weeks have been "head over ears" in business, owing to the extraordinary rush of applicants for accommodation. Last week these places became so crowded that rooms were had only at a high premium, and yesterday and the day before a great many proprietors were obliged to turn away applicants. These colored families arrived from Africa. They are pilgrims seeking the land of their fathers, where they believe their happier days await them.

The unfortunate families could not find lodgings, and passed a sleepless night Thursday. White people would not receive them and they were compelled to sleep upon a life of shame. In various ways their husband rendered his condition intolerable, and she was compelled at length to appeal to the divorce court.

Another Matrimonial Mistake.

Mary Sheehan has entered a petition in the Circuit Court for a divorce from John Stephens. The marriage took place April 18, 1884, and they parted June 1, 1885. Mrs. Sheehan alleges that her husband subjected her to various indignities rendering her condition intolerable; that he struck her on several occasions with a heavy piece of wood. She also states that he failed to provide for her and tried to persuade her to give up a life of shame. In various ways her husband rendered his condition intolerable, and she was compelled to appeal to the divorce court.

THE MAN WHO LOST AN EAR.

George K. Murray, the Victim of John Bell's Assault.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 2.—It has been learned that the gentleman whose ear was cut off last night by George Bell is not "John Stephens," but George K. Murray, a traveling salesman for an Eastern house, who makes his headquarters here. To a reporter who gained access to his room, he said that he had known Bell and his wife for some time and had been on friendly terms with them. He says he has always treated them with the utmost respect and no action of his was ever of a nature to offend them.

Murray presents a sorry appearance, as not only his ear, but also a large piece of his hair, was lost this morning, and his relatives would say nothing about the matter.

An Alleged Breach of Contract.

A suit for $10,000 damages, alleging breach of contract, was filed to-day in the Circuit Court by Geo. W. Dekker against J. C. Alderson and Samuel King. Mr. Dekker alleged that he was engaged in a shoe manufacturing business in this city in April, 1886, and induced his employer to let him go to Africa. On the representation of the defendants that they would convey to him a piece of real estate at $10,000. He alleges, however, that they subsequently refused to convey the property or to make the loan and thereby he was damaged in the sum above named.

Oversold.

Judge Lubke to-day heard the motion in the Lambrecht divorce case on the application of the husband, John F. Lambrecht, to reduce the amount of alimony from $40 to $20 per month. The decree was granted to Mrs. Lambrecht, who is 31 years old.

The term of alimony were $40 per month.

The husband contended that he was no longer able to pay that amount. The court overruled the motion.

A Brother-in-Law's Claim Denied.

A suit was filed to-day in the Circuit Court by Brandt McDowell to the suit brought against him by Wm. K. McClintock to recover $100 on account of board, clothing and money advanced by Mr. McDowell, sister of the plaintiff. Mr. McDowell, it is asserted, denies that he was ever lawfully married to May McClintock; avers that no lawful marriage ever existed between him and the plaintiff. He also states in his answer that the legality of the pretended marriage is in issue in the suit pending against him before Judge Luke.

Letters in Probate.

Letters of administration were granted to-day to Lizzie Canda on the estate of Michael Canda. The estate is valued at $1,500.

Letters of administration were granted to-day to Anna Sperling on the estate of Henry Sperling, deceased.

C. J. Hayward qualified as surviving partner of the partnership estate of Martin & Hayward.

The estate is valued at $600.

Notes in Court.

In the matter of the Dorris & Colvin circus receivership the final report was filed to-day in Judge Lubke's court by the receiver, R. J. Delano. The court ordered a final dividend of 3 per cent to be paid out of the balance in hand to the suit of the city against the Western Union Telegraph Co. was removed to-day from the Circuit Court to the United States Circuit Court, and the cause was assigned to Mr. Dickinson & Smith in behalf of the company.

An order of delivery for an engine was sued out to-day in the Circuit Court by the Westinghouse Electric Co. against Frank L. Johnson.

The circuit judges to-day granted several appeals to the higher courts in cases tried at the April term. The term closes to-night.

Missing People.

Thomas McGrath, aged 50 years, residing near the Sixteen-Mile House on the Clayton road, came into the city last Wednesday with a load of hay and a team of horses and has not since been heard from. One of the horses is a colt named Scholle, aged 16 years, left his home, No. 147 Warren street, yesterday morning, and has not since been seen.

Church Chat.

M. G. Gorin will preach at the North Free Presbyterian Church to-morrow on prayer, his morning subject being "The Duty of Prayer."

His evening, "The Prayer of the Public."

The ladies of the Rock Church will give dinner at the old Everett House on Fourth street, for two weeks beginning Monday next, from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m. daily.

The solemn celebration of Corpus Christi will be celebrated to-morrow at the Assumption Church, at 10 a. m. by Rev. G. O. Smith, Fr. Longwill presiding at the mass at 10 a. m. and Fr. J. Furhong will preach on the occasion.

G. W. Lubke, Jr., will lead the young men's choir of the Young Men's Christian Association, corner Twenty-ninth streets. Subject: "A Good Beginning." The choir will be seated in another part of the church, and those who have not seen the show should not miss this opportunity of enjoying it.

The Methodist, on account of regard for the wishes of the public, will to-night present a programme composed entirely of selections of Mexican music. The programme cannot fail to interest the congregation.

"HUNGRY JOE."

The King of Bummen Men Finishes His Term in Prison.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Joseph Lewis, or "Hungry Joe," who was indicted for the murder of Oscar Wildes out of $500 a few years ago, and who played confidence games on men of all classes and conditions, will be released from Clinton prison to-day. After a long career of crime "Hungry Joe," was sentenced by Recorder Smyth May 27, 1885, to four years in the State prison on a confession of grand larceny in the second degree. The State allows a conviction on such an offense for good behavior and if Joe had behaved himself since his trial he might have obtained his freedom last Tuesday, but he got into a fight with a fellow犯犯 a short time ago and lost ten days of his confinement. As this was his only infraction of the prison rules, the warden has granted him a furlough.

Joe was anxious to get away as soon as possible, for he might be arrested on some charge. It had been reported that he obtained a lodgment in Europe, but this was not true.

The wily confidence man, who was so hard to capture, had an enormous amount of American friends, and is said to have planned to live abroad. Clinton Prison is a few miles from New York and is a quiet place, a journey from there to the Canadian lines is easy. It is reported that Joe has engaged passage on a steamer of the Allan Line, which sails to Montreal, and is now en route.

The next news of him will probably come by cable. Joe numbers among his victims Americans, Englishmen, Frenchmen, Germans, foreigners as well as Americans, none of whom would ever complain for fear of the trouble it would bring. He seems to have laid considerable money, which will give him a chance to make a plunge in Europe.

Cheap or Dear.

A question of importance to every householder or purchaser of merchandise is whether the articles they buy are cheap or dear.

In these days, where so many so-called "cheap" goods are offered on the market as astonishingly low prices, they are calculated to deceive the public.

An article costing a dollar that will last only three months is much dearer than a better article of the same kind costing $1.25 which will last six months or a year.

The first never gives satisfaction; the second always does. If you want to buy a good refrigerator, that will be thoroughly satisfactory, not only for a season, but for years to come, go to a first-class establishment, where quality is always assured and substantially guaranteed, and you will certainly buy cheaper than you can by going to outside stores, who have simply added some low-priced line of inferior goods and who may not deal in the article in two years successively.

The Simmons Hardware Co. has entire control of the Siberia refrigerator and recommends it as the very best made, every one guaranteed to give a good service, at prices which are exceedingly low.

The rule of the house is "one price for all," and that price so low as to make it an object to people to visit their store.

The rule of "good quality" applies to other reasonable goods, commonly classed as house-furnishing goods. The Simmons Hardware Co. never sell inferior goods, but confine themselves to articles possessing intrinsic merit, which will give satisfaction to the consumer for all time to come.

Their Perfection Vapor Stoves have no equal. Their White Mountain Ice Cream Freezer stands ahead of all others.

In Children's Carriages they handle only Whitneys', which last longer, stand more room, are sturdier, more comfortable, better finished and more durable than others. When you want reliable goods in the way of hardware and house-furnishing goods, visit the corner of Ninth and Washington avenue.

COUNT ARCO VALLEY.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, June 2.—Count Arco Valley, the new German Minister to this country, arrived at this port yesterday on the steamship Lahn of the North German Lloyd Line. The German Consul General and Baron Von Zedwitz, Secretary of the Legation at Washington, were on the dock to welcome Count Arco, who was accompanied only by his valet, and the party was given a hearty welcome. A suite of rooms had been provided for the accommodation of the new Minister. Count Arco is a native of Berlin, and is a member of the diplomatic service. In 1871, he was Secretary of State in the German Embassy at Washington, and he has occupied the same position at London, and in other European capitals.

Count Arco is a tall, soldierly appearing man of aristocratic bearing, with fine physical qualities and fine abilities. It is believed that he will make his mark in his new appointment. He will go to Washington to-morrow, and he will remain in New York over Sunday evening. On Monday evening he visited a place of amusement in company with Baron Zedwitz, and he remained until late at night.

Count Arco is well acquainted with this country, and speaks English fluently. He said yesterday that he expected that his present sojourn in the United States would be a very pleasant one, and that he was very anxious to be here. He would not formally organize his household at once, but await the arrival of his wife, who is now in Europe, and who will arrive in the fall and would take charge of the establishment then.

Conversation Rate-Cutting.

Some very heavy rate-cutting for the convention is being done both East and West. The rate from Kansas City to the Missouri River has been cut to 1 cent a mile and the rate from Kansas City to St. Louis is only slightly in excess of this rate. The rates further west are based on these rates from St. Louis.

East of the river the R. & C. started a cut in its rates when it took the rail road extension to the Missouri River, and it is said to have brought from Pittsburgh less than half a cent per mile, and the rates on the Missouri River and the road extension were controlled by parties interested in the road. The cut was made by the railroad companies, and the road was controlled by parties interested in the road.

KANSAS CITY, June 2.—The roller mills were doing a great deal during the night. The loss is placed at $10,000.

Officials of Outside Roads Regard the Time as Impossible—Roads Admitted to Castle Garden—The Wabash Western Offices to Be Removed—The M. K. & T. Defaults on Its Interest Payment—Conventions Ease Cutting—General News.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, June 2.—The new Interstate Dispatch has been much commented upon in railroad circles. The officials of the Southern Pacific, who claim to carry more than 80 per cent of the California and remote West-bound freight, say that it is utterly impossible to run trains through from New York to San Francisco in the time specified. The Southern Pacific, which controls the Morgan Line of steamships, and carries its merchandise by water to New Orleans, reloading at that point, takes from sixteen to eighteen days, and the officials would be regarded as tardy for that road.

GENERAL EASTERN AGENT SWOOPS, of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy road, which is antagonistic to the new Chicago branch of the Santa Fe and whose traffic will be materially affected by the combination that has been formed, took an easy view of the situation. "I don't care about the new line," he said, "but I think we'll have to do something to keep the Erie road, for example, will limb it to any one transcontinental line, which would be a great hardship to us." He said that the Erie road, for example, will limb it to any one transcontinental line, which would be a great hardship to us.

ANOTHER SWOOP, by the Wabash, which has been established for the purpose of getting rid of the Wabash offices in the city, has been admitted to the Castle Garden.

The Richmond Terminal.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, June 2.—The friends of the Richmond & West Point Terminal Railway Co. were jubilant over the result of the special meeting at Richmond on Thursday. To the suggestion of making a special arrangement with the Wabash, which had been immediately accepted, it was voted over 10 per cent of the share capital, a director of the company replied: "The meeting was held under circumstances which I do not care to repeat, but that could not have been voted if the Wabash had not been present." The record of the meeting shows that the Board of Directors recommended that the Wabash be admitted to the new line.
